FEBRUARY 15, 2026

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ASH WEDNESDAY

Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2026

10 a.m. & 5 p.m. Masses

ST. PETER CLAVER CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

At St. Peter Claver we are a community of faith made up of parishioners who uphold the Catholic tradition. We believe in a community, which supports families and children, transcending racial, economic, and geographic boundaries for the purpose of worship, religious education, outreach and fellowship. St. Peter Claver promotes a worship environment that is visually and spiritually Afrocentric. The Eucharist is the source of the energy that moves us to community service and evangelization. This is done in concert with other Christian communities under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

MAKING HISTORY | Celebrating Black History Month in February

Pinckney Pinchback, First African-American Governor

Pinckney Benton Stewart Pinchback (May 10, 1837–December 21, 1921) was an American publisher, politician, and Union Army officer who served as the 24th governor of Louisiana from December 9, 1872, to January 13, 1873. Pinchback is commonly referred to as the first African-American governor and the second lieutenant governor (after Oscar Dunn) in the United States. His recognition as the first African-American governor is disputed. Dunn served as acting governor for 39 days in 1871, more than a year before Pinchback served as acting governor, both temporarily replacing governor Henry C. Warmoth. A Republican, Pinchback served as acting governor of Louisiana for 35 days, during which ten acts of Legislature became law. He was one of the most prominent African-American officeholders during and following the Reconstruction Era.

Pinchback was born free in Macon, Georgia, to Eliza Stewart and her master, William Pinchback, a white planter. His father raised the younger Pinchback and his siblings as his own children on his large plantation in Mississippi. After the death of his father in 1848, his mother took Pinchback and siblings to the free state of Ohio to ensure their continued freedom. After the start of the American Civil War, Pinchback traveled to Union-occupied New Orleans. There he raised several companies for the 1st Louisiana Native Guard, and became one of the few African-Americans commissioned as officers in the Union Army.

Pinchback remained in New Orleans after the Civil War, becoming active in Republican politics. He won election to the Louisiana State Senate in 1868 and became the president pro tempore of the state senate. He became the acting Lieutenant Governor of Louisiana following the death of Oscar Dunn in 1871 and briefly served as acting governor of Louisiana after Henry C. Warmoth was impeached. After the contested 1872 Louisiana gubernatorial election, Republican legislators elected Pinchback to the United States Senate. Due to the controversy over the 1872 elections in the state, which were challenged by white Democrats, Pinchback was never seated in Congress.

Pinchback served as a delegate to the 1879 Louisiana constitutional convention, where he helped gain support for the founding of Southern University. In a Republican federal appointment, he served as the surveyor of U.S. customs of New Orleans from 1882 to 1885. Later, he worked with other leading African-American men to challenge the segregation of Louisiana's public transportation system, leading to the Supreme Court case of Plessy v. Ferguson. To escape increasing racial oppression, he moved with his family to Washington, D.C., in 1892, where they were among the elite African-Americans. He died there in 1921.

History of Black History Month

The idea of the recognition of black people and their accomplishments actually began in 1915, 50 years after the 13th Amendment that abolished slavery in the United States. Harvard Trained Carter G. Woodson and Minister Jesse E. Moorland founded the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, dedicated to research and promotion of black Americans. In 1926, the group sponsored a national Negro History Week celebrating during the second week of February to coincide with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. It was during the Ford Administration that National Black History Month came to be. Since then, every US president has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month.

It is only appropriate that during Black History Month we acknowledge the Black Saints to be in the Catholic Church: Venerable Father Augustus Tolton, Servant of God Mother Mary Lange, Sister Thea Bowman, Venerable Mother Henriette DeLille, Venerable Pierre Toussaint, Servant of God Julia Greeley.

SECOND COLLECTION

National Black and Native American Missions
Next weekend — Feb. 21-22

The collection for the National Black and Native American Missions will be taken up in our diocese on February 21-22. This collection helps support a wide variety of evangelization and educational efforts throughout the United States, including our own diocese. The Diocese of Lexington receives an annual grant from this collection to support multi-cultural efforts, to provide funding for speakers, conferences and trainings, and to purchase special resource materials for use throughout the diocese. Please be generous and help support the good work within our diocese.

FIRST FRIDAY DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Painting by Fr. Norman Fischer

Starting on March 6, 2026
 St. Peter Claver will observe the
First Friday Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus
 on the first Friday of every month.
10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

*(There will be a sign-up sheet,
 so someone will be present throughout the day.)*

FASTING & ABSTINENCE

- Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.
- For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.
- When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.
- The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

The 40 days and 40 nights prior to Easter are known as Lent. In the year 2026, Lent will begin on Ash Wednesday, February 18.

The temptation of Jesus Christ is detailed in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke. (Matthew 4:1–11). According to these texts, after being baptized by Saint John the Baptist, Jesus fasted for forty days and nights in the Judean Desert. During this time, Satan appeared to Jesus and tried to tempt him by every temptation imaginable. After Jesus having refused each temptation, the Devil then departed and Jesus returned to Galilee to begin his ministry. The Holy Season of Lent commemorates Jesus’ temptation in the desert.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday. Catholics attend Mass and receive ashes on their foreheads to remind us that “from dust we came; to dust we shall return”.

Lent is the season of penance, prayer, almsgiving and self-denial. Just like the Holy Season of Advent, Catholics are obliged to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist during the Holy Season of Lent.

Catholics are encouraged to fast throughout the entire duration of Lent, except on Sundays. On Fridays during Lent, Catholics must abstain from meat. Catholics must fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting is the reduction of intake of food.

The fourth Sunday of Lent is called “Laetare” or “joyful” in Latin. Just like during the Holy Season of Advent, the Priest and Deacon wear Rose vestments. The sixth Sunday of Lent is Palm Sunday which will be March 29 and begins Holy Week which includes Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil (Easter Triduum). OCIA catechumens and candidates are initiated the evening of Easter Vigil which begins at sundown.
